Contest Requirements, Rules & Information:

- The above form must be filled out completely and submitted with your final design. Please do not submit them separately. You have until September 30, 2020 at midnight to submit your submission materials.
- All ages may enter. A parent/guardian must fill out the form above with their information as well as the name of their child.
- Submissions are accepted from individuals, families, organizations, businesses, or other groups. There is no limit on group participants, though we ask if you are a business or organization, that you include your group name and one contact name with information.
- You do not have to have a Carlisle, PA address to enter, but you must have some affiliation to the community. We want to make sure the design chosen is a reflection of our wonderful community through the eyes of its community members.
- The winning design will be chosen by the Players on High Committee. This will be a blind voting process, and the committee will not have names attached to each design as they are being judged.
- The winning design will be printed on a flat, ceramic, hanging ornament, and will be sold as a fundraiser throughout the community to benefit Players on High, the live theatre branch of the historic Carlisle Theatre. The ornament is round, and the diameter will measure between 2.85” and 3.75”.
- All entries must be sent via email in JPG form. Please do not submit anything smaller than 345 x 260 pixels. We will be happy to work with the winner to get a proper size. You will not be disqualified for image size, just know you may be asked to reconfigure your design if you win for printing purposes.
- Any and all types of artwork are welcome, and there are no rules or limits concerning style, medium, or colors.
- Your design can have both artwork and verbiage if you choose.
- All submitted designs must be the original work of the person entering. It cannot be previously published or copyrighted. It cannot be someone else’s published work. All designs containing elements of other artist’s work will be disqualified.
- Profanity, or images/words alluding to alcohol, weapons, drugs, abuse, art of a sexual nature, or anything similar will be immediately disqualified.

Once a design is submitted, the artist no longer will own the design nor will they receive any funds or royalties for sale of items at any point in time. The theatre will have full authority over the use of winning design in all capacities. Please do not submit your design if you do not agree to these terms. Artists will be credited on our website and social media at all times as the creator.
